

Sister Sylvia Middle School Scholarship

As a long-time, wholly dedicated member of the St. Joseph community, tirelessly committed to Catholic education and faith-formation, Sr. Sylvia Leonardi not only represents the heritage of SJCA but also embodies the essence of Catholic education. SJCA is pleased to honor Sr. Sylvia with this scholarship in her name.

Based on family income, the Sr. Sylvia Middle School Scholarship allows qualifying families to pay the current SJCA elementary school tuition rate for their Middle School years. We encourage all families who may qualify to apply for this scholarship.

Requirements for this scholarship are below:

1. The applicant must be a Middle School student.
2. The family must complete a financial aid application or be income qualified for the Wisconsin Parental Choice Program.
3. The applicant's family income must fall within the chart below:
